Senior Product Designer in Southern California. I like getting into the mess of a user problem, solving for real people, and building products that make an impact. Lately that looked like leading marketing tools at Kajabi.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Designer Kajabi
Apr 2020 – Jul 2025

Irvine, CA · Remote · Lead designer, consolidated Marketing Tools team

- Design lead for the consolidated Marketing Tools team from Aug 2023 responsible for UX across email, CRM, analytics, messaging, automations, and AI-powered tools. Worked with Product and Engineering from discovery through launch, including leadership reviews and creator-facing webinars.
- Creator Studio 0→1 AI-powered content repurposing from concept through GA (Mar 2024): 131 paid in ~2 weeks, 17.2k assets generated, 43% of beta replacing external tools.
- Messaging & CRM Email A/B (v1v2), contact profiles, event analytics, email organization, and resend-to-unopened helping creators understand customer behavior, track performance, and manage relationships; patterns were reused across the platform.
- Automations & workflows Kajabi's first Automations 2.0 Visual Editor and Comment to DM, simplifying complex marketing workflows; Adobe Express integration into Creator Studio and other builder experiences, in partnership with Adobe; custom domain setup with Entri.
